

Read

You're invited to read for fun, earn prizes, and participate in programs at the library this summer.

Read books, magazines, or newspapers or listen to audiobooks.

Choose to count the time you spend reading or the number of days you read.

Receive prizes after reading for 5, 10, and 15 hours or 10, 20, and 30 days. Continue to enter the prize drawing for every additional 5 hours or 10 days you read.

Friday, June 8 is the first day to register for summer programs and get a reading log.

Monday, June 18 is the first day to show us your reading logs and earn prizes.

Friday, August 10 is the last day to receive prizes.

Programs for All Ages

Creatures of the Night:
Nocturnal Birds and Mammals
Tuesday, June 19 at 10:30 A.M.
Senior and Community Activity Center
See nocturnal birds and mammals from Howell Nature Center's Wild Wonders Wildlife Park and learn about their adaptations for living in the dark.

Starlab: The Night Sky
Tuesday, August 14 at 4:30
Senior and Community Activity Center
Explore the wonders of the night sky inside an inflatable Starlab Dome.
Registration will begin on July 14.

Everyone may participate in our Summer Reading Program. You do not need a library card to read, earn prizes, or attend programs. (You only need a card to check out books and other materials from the library.)

Teen Tuesdays

1:00 - 2:45 ~ 6th - 8th grade
3:00 - 4:45 ~ 9th - 12th grade

June 12: Paint the Windows
Paint the windows of the library with the summer themes.

June 26: Books and Bites
Discuss what you're reading, hear suggestions for new books to read this summer, and enjoy snacks.

July 3: Game Day
Play Wii games, board games, cup stacking, and Minute-to-Win-It challenges.

July 10: Recycled Crafts
Make craft projects from recycled materials.

July 17 & 24: Reader's Theater
Create a play from a children's book, create (simple) costumes and props, and perform the play for younger children.

July 31: Game Day
Play Wii games, board games, cup stacking, and Minute-to-Win-It challenges.

August 7: Ice Cream Social
Make ice cream sundaes at our final Teen Tuesday of the summer.

All programs are free.
Registration is requested.
Please register online at www.milanlibrary.org/teens, stop by the circulation desk, or call 439-1240.

Teen Summer Programs

(6th - 12th grade)

June 8 – August 14, 2012

OWN^{the}NIGHT

Thank You

to the supporters
of our Summer Reading Program.

Friends of Milan Public Library
For funding the Summer Reading Program

City of Milan
for the use of the Senior & Community Activity Center
for programs

Community Members
for generously donating to the program

Ann Arbor Hands-On Museum

Auntie Anne's

Basil Boys

Big Boy

Clonlara School

Collins Center

Hungry Howie's Pizza

Kohl's - Mary Kay Phillips

McDonald's of Milan

Milan Bakery

Nagle's Market

Nicola's Books

Sam's Club

Would you like to volunteer at the library this summer? If you'd like to help with programs for younger children,
please contact the library.

Milan Public Library

151 Wabash Street
Milan, MI 48160
(734) 439-1240
www.milanlibrary.org
Find us on Facebook